

Brief Editorials.

Swindling in New York City is not confined to the ring thieves. Suspicion has lately been aroused that grocery-men are cheating by using false weights. A committee was appointed to investigate. A committee was appointed to investigate. A committee was appointed to investigate.

Some time ago, J. R. Osgood of Boston, commenced a prosecution against E. C. Allen of this city, for violation of the copyright law in christening his juvenile paper, "The Boston Herald," after the name of the Boston Herald.

Mr. Fassett the Portland Architect has been engaged by the commissioners to draft a plan and make the specifications to be presented to the Legislature, for a new Insane Hospital.

The summary matter in which Judge Davis deals with the ring thieves in New York is quite likely to make him a candidate for the presidency.

The wisdom of Solomon bids fair to be eclipsed by a Cincinnati judge. A suit was recently brought for the value of a German stalling.

The holidays are now at hand and the publishers and booksellers have usually large quantities of books designed for Christmas presents.

On Tuesday in the Senate several bills were introduced and referred to the committee, including one providing for free banking by which national banks may themselves determine the amount of United States money they will keep on hand.

On Tuesday in the Senate several bills were introduced and referred to the committee, including one providing for free banking by which national banks may themselves determine the amount of United States money they will keep on hand.

Items of Maine News.

The late Judge Bourne of Kennebunk was a devotee of 8000 to the Maine Historical Society. The snow is reported to be two feet deep in the woods in Arrowsick.

The stone factory in Rockland will resume work next Monday, says the Free Press.

Estley Bailey of Westbrook, 90 years old, died very suddenly on Friday.

Mr. John Ripley, the oldest inhabitant of Bath, died on Monday, at his one hundredth year.

A lady fell in a pit on Franklin street, Bangor, Thursday, but soon recovered her senses and was taken home.

The Reporter says work on the Court House at Bangor is progressing finely. The building is to be entirely finished by Jan. 1st.

The brick masonry of the new French Catholic church in Biddeford has been closed for the fall.

The inhabitants of Alva plantation will have an act of incorporation as a town, of the Legislature for 1874.

Logging around the head waters of the Androscoggin, has commenced in earnest, and earlier than usual.

The Somerset railroad bridge at Northridge is estimated about half done and the river and is being completed as fast as possible.

Steamer Franconia, from New York for Portland, put into Newport on Tuesday, on account of the storm.

The government will sell at auction in Rockland next Monday, its buildings and other property of vast amount on Dix Island.

There will be about the usual amount of lumbering done on the Maine coast this winter.

The Maine Relief Association in Rockland has about one hundred members and a fund of $400.

The Catholics of Rockland have formed a "St. David's Total Abstinence Society."

The town of Brooks, with a population of 1870, has a valuation of $200,176, owes $300,000, and has a debt of $100,000.

Rail W. Greely, freight conductor on the Eastern Railroad, had the third finger of his left hand jammed completely off Monday afternoon while shoveling coal.

On Saturday a workman on the Portland and Ogunquit Railroad at the North near last night was badly bruised by an explosion of dynamite.

The Grand Army boys, the night before Thanksgiving, distributed quite a number of turkey among the needy families of deceased or sick soldiers in Lewiston.

A little son of M. Leavitt of Sohier, caught his foot in the crack of a door on Thursday night, and jammed it off, holding only by a shred.

The whole Board of Selectmen of the town of Biddeford having been hired to work in the New Hampshire lumber regions, the town was obliged to call a meeting to elect a new Board.

The steamer Cambridge plowed her way through ice two and three inches thick Saturday forenoon, from Sanford's wharf, Bangor, to Hampden.

The Markets.

Brighton Cattle Market.

At market for the current week—Cattle 1000 to 1200; Sheep 1000 to 1200; Hogs 1000 to 1200.

The sheep market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The cattle market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The hogs market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The poultry market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The butter market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The cheese market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The flour market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The grain market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The oil market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The sugar market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The coffee market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The tea market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The spice market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The fruit market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The vegetable market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The meat market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The fish market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The dairy market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The poultry market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The grain market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The oil market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The sugar market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The coffee market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The Markets.

Brighton Cattle Market.

At market for the current week—Cattle 1000 to 1200; Sheep 1000 to 1200; Hogs 1000 to 1200.

The sheep market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The cattle market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The hogs market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The poultry market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The butter market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The cheese market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The flour market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The grain market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The oil market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The sugar market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The coffee market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The tea market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The spice market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The fruit market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The vegetable market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The meat market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The fish market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The dairy market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The poultry market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The grain market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The oil market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The sugar market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The coffee market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The Markets.

Brighton Cattle Market.

At market for the current week—Cattle 1000 to 1200; Sheep 1000 to 1200; Hogs 1000 to 1200.

The sheep market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The cattle market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The hogs market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The poultry market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The butter market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The cheese market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The flour market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The grain market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The oil market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The sugar market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The coffee market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The tea market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The spice market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The fruit market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The vegetable market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The meat market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The fish market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The dairy market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The poultry market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The grain market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The oil market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The sugar market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The coffee market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The Markets.

Brighton Cattle Market.

At market for the current week—Cattle 1000 to 1200; Sheep 1000 to 1200; Hogs 1000 to 1200.

The sheep market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The cattle market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The hogs market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The poultry market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The butter market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The cheese market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The flour market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The grain market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The oil market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The sugar market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The coffee market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The tea market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The spice market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The fruit market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The vegetable market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The meat market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The fish market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The dairy market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The poultry market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The grain market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The oil market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The sugar market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The coffee market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The Markets.

Brighton Cattle Market.

At market for the current week—Cattle 1000 to 1200; Sheep 1000 to 1200; Hogs 1000 to 1200.

The sheep market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The cattle market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The hogs market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The poultry market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The butter market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The cheese market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The flour market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The grain market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The oil market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The sugar market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The coffee market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The tea market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The spice market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The fruit market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The vegetable market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The meat market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The fish market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The dairy market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The poultry market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The grain market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The oil market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The sugar market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The coffee market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The Markets.

Brighton Cattle Market.

At market for the current week—Cattle 1000 to 1200; Sheep 1000 to 1200; Hogs 1000 to 1200.

The sheep market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The cattle market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The hogs market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The poultry market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The butter market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The cheese market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The flour market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The grain market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The oil market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The sugar market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The coffee market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The tea market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The spice market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The fruit market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The vegetable market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The meat market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The fish market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The dairy market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The poultry market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The grain market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The oil market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The sugar market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The coffee market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The Markets.

Brighton Cattle Market.

At market for the current week—Cattle 1000 to 1200; Sheep 1000 to 1200; Hogs 1000 to 1200.

The sheep market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The cattle market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The hogs market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The poultry market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The butter market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The cheese market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The flour market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The grain market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The oil market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The sugar market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The coffee market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The tea market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The spice market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The fruit market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The vegetable market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The meat market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The fish market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The dairy market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The poultry market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The grain market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The oil market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The sugar market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

The coffee market was quiet, with a few sales at 10 to 12 cents per lb.

[illegible]